

Your future is in your hands!

Public Health Inspector

What Is Public Health?

- health protection
- disease prevention
- health promotion
- injury prevention

Why Is It for You?

- great salaries
- local jobs available
- good work schedule
- jobs for a variety of professionals

Public health inspectors are in such high demand that the Eastern Ontario Health Unit will actually help pay for your education.* Imagine...part of your tuition paid, a possible job offer after graduation, and an average income of $55 500 per year.

As a public health inspector you will:

- inspect restaurants, tattoo parlours, hairdressers, beauty salons, and other establishments to ensure the public's safety
- visit beaches and collect water samples for laboratory analysis
- investigate complaints of unsanitary conditions that may pose a danger to the public
- make presentations throughout the community on a variety of topics including food handling and food safety

Some restrictions apply.*
